A Note from Our Editor

Our board has decided, all things considered, that our members should celebrate the High Holy Day at home. I am including the schedule for Central Synagogue's live streaming below. I will have copies of their mazhor which we used last year for you to use; you will be able to pick them up at my home starting September 16th. I will leave them out on my front porch. Please let me know by email if you have taken one (or two – couples).

Central Synagogue Live Streaming for the High Holy Days:
Erev Rosh Hashannah Friday, September 18: 6-7:30pm
Rosh Hashannah Saturday, September 19: 10:30am-12:30pm
Kol Neidre Sunday, September 27: 8-9:30pm
Yom Kippur Monday, September 28: 10-30am-12:30pm
Yiskor Monday, September 28: 3:30-5:30

While we will not be meeting this month, check out the wonderful offering on Jewish food by the Yivo Institute toward the end of this newsletter. It ties in nicely with our project of bringing various types of Jewish food to your table.

Support your local restaurants: for great salad, soup and pizza

VOTE, VOTE, VOTE

– vote by mail – get your vote in early – you can check to see if it has been received at the website for Marion County Elections.

How do I apply for a mail ballot? Apply on your county supervisor of elections' website. You can also apply via email, fax or mail.

What is the application deadline? Must be mailed by 5 p.m. on Oct. 24. Your ballot has to be mailed to you within two business days after the request is received by the elections supervisor.

What is the deadline for mailing my completed ballot? Must be received by 7 p.m. on Nov. 3

Is there a place where I can drop off my completed ballot instead of mailing it? Yes. Ballots can be returned to secure drop boxes at your county supervisor of elections' main and branch offices and early voting sites in your county. Locations are available online.

Brought to you through the Jewish Council of North Central Florida –

The JCNCF publishes a weekly newsletter containing all sorts of information about activities and events you can join. They support our area with so many good programs; why not support them. They are in the midst of their annual fund drive now. All donations are appreciated. You can find them at www.jcncf.org

A Seat at the Table

A JOURNEY INTO JEWISH FOOD

Join us for an exploration into the heart of Jewish food, with an emphasis on the Ashkenazi table. This course features hundreds of never-before-seen archival objects, lectures by leading scholars, and video demonstrations of your favorite Jewish recipes by renowned chefs. Discover how the essence of Jewish food has remained constant even as the recipes have evolved and changed with the migration of Jews around the world.
